Description

This 2025 Audi A6 e-tron Sportback Edition 1 is a remarkable example, having had only one owner from new and benefiting from Audi manufacturer approval. This electric vehicle boasts a sophisticated Four Wheel Drive system and a substantial 100 kWh battery, offering an impressive maximum range of 410 miles. Its spacious boot provides ample room for all your needs, making it a practical choice for everyday life and longer journeys. Experience exhilarating performance with an acceleration of 0-62mph in just 4.7 seconds, a highlight that sets this A6 e-tron apart. When it comes to charging, you can achieve a full charge at home using a 7kW charger in approximately 15 hours, or benefit from rapid public charging, reaching 80% capacity from empty in as little as 24 minutes. These charging capabilities, combined with its extensive range, demonstrate the advanced technology and convenience this Audi offers.
